Task 2 (10 points)

Read the text below. Ten words have been removed from the text. Decide which word best fits into each gap. Write a correct letter (A-L) into the appropriate gap. There is one extra word that you do not need. An example (0) has been done for you.

The Notting Hill Carnival

Dancing policemen, steel drums, street stalls, sound systems and Rastas. This can only mean one thing: The Notting Hill Carnival. The biggest street festival in Europe takes place every year on the August (0) I as two million people gather in west London to eat, drink and dance to music. What was once started by a small group of dedicated Trinidadian steel drummers in the 1960s is now one of the biggest (31) _____ festivals in the World.

The festival has something for everyone. There are over 45 licensed stages each (32) _____ with hundreds of speakers that compete with each other for your attention. They play every kind of music under the sun (33) _____ Drum & Bass, Hip Hop, Garage, Reggae, Funk, Jazz and Soul.

International stars have also (34) _____ on Notting Hill's stages, such as Wyclef Jean, Mighty Sparrow, Freddie McGregor, Burning Spear.

The Carnival has its (35) _____ in the island of Trinidad in the Caribbean. Trinidadians are suitably (36) _____ as the Carnival draws on all aspects of their cultural heritage from both Europe and Africa.

However, these days the Notting Hill Carnival (37) _____ people from all over the world. Groups from Bulgaria, Russia, Afghanistan, the Philippines and Brazil are positively (38) _____ to join the festival and add to the cultural melting pot.

The Carnival is a mixture of colour, music, and pure human (39) _____. There are so many people it is sometimes difficult to work out what's going on. When you go try to see if you can experience a little bit of the five different musical themes that (40) _____ the carnival: Steelband, Calypso, Mas' (masquerade), Soca (the traditional music of carnival) and of course the Static Sound systems.

Task 1 (6 points)

Underline the correct answer.
An example (0) has been done for you.

Puppets (0) been/ were/ are among the oldest man-made objects in the world. Archaeologists in Egypt and India (41) had found/have found/found jointed clay models that are operated by pulling (42) your/its/their strings, which date from 4,000 years ago. Historians tell us that puppets have been created (43) with/from/by nearly all peoples at all times.

(44) A/ -/ The first puppets were probably used most by adults. Tribal peoples, such as Native Americans, (45) have used/used/were using puppets to represent people or animals in religious rituals. And early peoples in Africa, China and India used puppets to act out ancient stories (46) from/of/off gods and demons.

Today, puppets (47) are/were/have been largely for children's entertainment. They range (48) of/to/from puppets tiny enough to fit on just one finger, to puppets big enough for (49) an/a/- adult to fit inside. Shows based around (50) less large/the largest/larger puppets are popular in theatres, while smaller puppets usually perform on their own miniature stages. Puppets of all kinds (51) had/have/has their own TV shows too. Puppet shows have elaborate scenery, lighting, and costumes. Often music plays (52) a/the/- large part too.
